Feb. 24–Mar. 2 • Seventh Week in Ordinary Time

Bible verse
“To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you.”
Luke 6:27

Saint quote
Even behind the hardest sacrifices and worst suffering stands God with his Fatherly love.

Blessed Engelmar Unzeitig, from Dachau

Family challenge
Bless one another.

Pray St. Theresa’s Bookmark.

Read Sunday’s Gospel and choose a part to work on this week.

Check out the articles about these ideas at pbgrace.com.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 24
The sermon on the plain, part 2
In the first reading, how does David love his enemy? What part of Jesus’ sermon on the plain is most challenging for you?

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25
St. Walburga (710-779)
An abess and missionary to the Germans.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26
Venerable Felix Varela (1788-1853)
The Cuban priest, theologian, and patriot who argued for the abolition of slavery and the value of religion to secure liberty.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27
St. Gabriel of Our Lady of Sorrows (1838-1862) A fun, joyful young man who gave his life to God; he is patron of youth.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28
St. John Cassian (360-435)
Best known for Conference of the Desert Fathers, a collection of wise sayings.

FRIDAY, MARCH 1
St. David of Wales
A priest and bishop who founded many monasteries throughout Wales.

SATURDAY, MARCH 2
Blessed Engelmar Unzeitig (1911-1945) The German priest martyred for preaching sermons in defense of Jews and against the Nazis.

In March...

...we celebrate
★St. Joseph.
...Pope Francis asks us to pray for persecuted Christian communities.

We’re praying for...

Our goals this week...

© Gracewatch Media, www.gracewatch.media. For more Catholic family resources, go to peanutbutter@grace at pbgrace.com and on Facebook, Pinterest, and Instagram. Permission is gladly given to reproduce this sheet for personal and parish use. Do not post online or reproduce for sale.